The following questions are related to this section of the syllabus. They have been adapted from past papers.

- Describe the research methodology used in a research study you have studied. (3 marks)
- Describe parts of the experimental design that contributed to the reliability of results in a research study you have studied. (3 marks)
- Explain how information or data was collected in a research study you have studied. (4 marks)
- Explain the research methodology that was used in a research study you have studied. (4 marks)
- Describe the way equipment was used in a research study you have studied. (3 marks)
- Describe the methods that were used to ensure unbiased results in a research study you have studied. (4 marks)
- Describe and evaluate the research design of a research study you have studied. (4 marks)
- Identify one research study you have studied. Analyse the appropriateness of the research methodology used in this study and the way in which data has been collected. (8 marks)