The following questions are related to this section of the syllabus. They have been adapted from past papers.

- Describe the types of data collected in a research study you have studied. (3 marks)
- Describe the way results were presented in a research study you have studied. (3 marks)
- Describe the way data was analysed in a research study you have studied. (3 marks)
- Describe the ways in which information was presented in a research study you have studied. (4 marks)
- Explain how the results were analysed and presented in a research study you have studied. (4 marks)
- Describe and evaluate the data analysis and presentation in a research study you have studied. (4 marks)