Exercise 1: You the director

Your name:
Your teacher’s name:
Date:

You are the director of the stage production of 48 Shades of Brown for the school drama festival.

As the director you will give an audio visual presentation to your teacher and class about how you intend to stage the production of the play.

You will need to convince your teacher and class of your knowledge of the play and production ideas for the staging of the play.

Presentation: 5 minutes

Criteria

- identify and explain the features of the play ........................................... □
- describe and explain your proposed production of the play ............... □
- use appropriate and engaging multimedia elements in your presentation. .......................................................... □